

Darryl M. Esau

Director, Education Services, Bulletproof

Darryl Esau, as the Director of Education, brings over 25 years of expertise in corporate education to his division at Bulletproof.

Darryl has worked as an executive for a national corporate training company, before joining Bulletproof in 2009.

Bulletproof provides end to end learning services including custom eLearning content development & delivery, Instructor Lead Training, as well as ongoing success management services through Learning Management System administration and support.

With a global fortune 500 clientele, Darryl manages a team of over 30 full time staff, from Halifax to Kamloops, BC, and is extremely proud of the talent and commitment that this team brings to each and every project.

Darryl has a respected career track record of growing business, innovation, and creativity now focused on blending Education Services with Bulletproofs well established Security and Consulting Services, also marketing his division as a stand-alone service.